

Hui Makua
February 8, 2017
5:00pm
LCPCS Cafeteria

In Attendance: Kaulana Smith, Niki Hubbard, Rachel Real, Liana Honda, Ta'sa Mcdonald, Manuel McDonald, Emily Rogers, Romeo Garcia, Jesse Navalta, Jerby Navalta, Adelaida Angelo, Clemencio Nevalta, Gabriel B. Navalta, Rachel Conder, Lei Kawelo, Moana Cornelio, Liana Honda, Trinity Blyth, Melissa Schad, Aaron Mickelson, Shantell Urbanozo

Minutes

Reports

1. Message from the Director(s)

- Romeo Garcia:
 - a. Announcement also in newsletter - Two upcoming opportunities to meet the director: This Saturday 2/11 at 10am at Papaloa gym. 2nd (same agenda) next Wednesday 2/15 at 6pm at LCPCS Cafeteria. Seeking community input for school improvement using the CIP Grant.
 - b. Last game of the basketball season was a big celebration.
 - c. We received a 3 year accreditation renewal. Plan to shoot for 5 year for the next renewal.
- Liana Honda:
 - a. She and three teachers celebrated Isaiah Knoblauch who received an award for the most gains on Achieve 3000.
 - b. We are getting ready for May Day on May 12.

2. Faculty:

- Report from Kaulana Smith: Bob Zellner is organizing an Earth Day event and looking for volunteers to share an activity for student rotations. Mr. Otake will be hosting a fire ant workshop at the school on Feb 27th in AM.
- Aaron Mickelson: 40 kids are enrolled in the Malamalama Afterschool Program. Plans for a mural project - looking for suggestions: Four 4x8 wood panels telling the story of Laupahoehoe past/present/future. Looking for ideas, can be reached by email aaron.mickelson@lcpcs.com or in the old band room.
- Naomi Smith: Book Fair Feb 22 - March 3rd. Book fair online sales begin one week before and one week after. Volunteers are needed, sign-ups here.

3. Student(s):

- SAC Shantel Urbanozo:
 - a. Junior class asking for a donation from Hui Makua. Other classes organizing to fundraise and needing their parents to help make extracurricular activities / field trips memorable.

- b. Bread sale planned at end of Feb.
- c. Music fest on April 8 tickets are avail on line. Parent package: special family rate only available at office, starting soon. 10 years old and under are free. $10 for the rest of the family. Others can buy online.
- d. Children's Justice Center will be taking in prom dress donations to be offered to our girls for free as well as manicures/pedicures before the event.
- e. Graduation is May 19th
- Gabby Navalta: Thank you for buying Kalua pork and cabbage plates for tonight's fundraiser. Next fundraiser will be selling Krispy Kremes in front of Walmart in Hilo. Date to be determined.

4. Governing Board:

- Niki Hubbard: Music Fest April 8th. We have an exciting line up for the event. Now volunteers are needed - Sign up sheets here tonight.

Events and Updates

1. Emily Rogers - Fundraiser: Laupahoehoe Point Clean-up Feb 18th. Meet at the point at 1pm. We will be collecting trash from the road leading up to highway to the shoreline. Pictures will be taken and sent to Matson to verify amount collected. Matson will donate $1000 to LCPCS. One or two pickup trucks are still needed. Trash bags will be provided. Volunteer sign-up sheets here tonight.
2. Kaulana:
 - a. School Self-Study - drafts available, 2/14 present to GB, 2/21 GB approval, 2/27 due to WASC Chair. Needing donations for WASC team visit - flyer. WASP visiting team coming in April after Music Fest. Boards up at the school.
 - b. Interact Club to begin Clothing Drive for Keiki Closet through Hamakua Baptist Church - for families in need. There are no requirements to receive the clothing if in need. The flyer will have a phone #, info will be displayed on the marque. Interact Club members will be working on the flyers. The drive will run all the way to Earth Day. Interact is connected through Hilo Rotary Club.
 - c. Suggestion for parent Education on to be offered at parent nights. Such as cooking class, drug and alcohol awareness, reading strategies. A different topic every month.
3. Melissa Schad: Blue Zone workshop; Finding your purpose in life, living a happier and healthier life. Wednesday. 2/22 at the LCPCS Cafeteria 5:30pm-7:30pm. Walkers are already meeting in the Laupahoehoe pool parking lot, Tues/Thurs at 8:00am to 8:45am. Flyers available here tonight.
4. Next Hui Makua meeting March 8th at 5:00pm. Location to be determined.